THE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION, QUALITY

Kentucky Sends an Uninstructed Delegation to Chicago-The Platform.

The Kentucky Democratic Convention met in Louisville Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, remaining in session until 2 o'clock Thursday morning.

Charles R. Long of Louisville was elected Temporary Chairman over Charles J. Bronston of Lexington, and the remainder of the afternoon was devoted to speeches and the appointment of committees.

In the evening ex-Governor James B. McCreary was chosen Permanent Chairman, as recommended by the Committee on Organization and Messrs. Henry Watterson, James A. McKenzie, John B. The following are authorized Agents for Castleman and W. C. Owens were elected delegates from the state at large, the first-named by a rising vote.

John D. Carroll was chosen Chairman of the State Central Committee to succeed Colonel Castleman, resigned. Among those from whom speeches were insisted on by the Convention were Messrs. Bronston, Watterson, Breckinridge and McKenzie. The delegation is uninstructed and mostly anti-Cleveland.

The platform is very brief and speaks for itself, to-wit:

"The Democracy of Kentucky, in convention assembled, declare:

"First—That we indorse and reaffirm the principles of the Democratic National platform of 1888. Second-That we condemn the principles of the Republican party, as exem-plified in its iniquitous Tariff legislation, its advocacy of the infamous Force bill, its extravagant pension laws, wastefulness of the public funds, class legislation and A First-class Line of centralization. And in striking contrast with these dangerous measures, we indorse the Democratic idea of Tariff reform and economical government, whereby lieved of unjust burdens of taxation.

"Third-We demand a sound and stable currency composed of or redeemable gold and silver coin. We declare it to be the mission of the Democratic party to preserve the party in value of gold and silver dollars, and to provide the means to Oak Woods, Fleming county, to open a by appropriate legislation for the free general store.
